Street Car War.

Muskegon (Mich.) Street with Freckle After Row Over 6-Cent Fare.

Many Injured, Much Property Destroyed; Constabulary may be Called.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
MUSKEGON (Mich.) Aug. 6.—

One man is dying, many others are injured and third street cars owned by the Muskegon Traction and Light Company have been wrecked and burned in a night in which hundreds of thousands overran the city. Officials expect to call on the state constabulary, fearing further outbreaks tonight. The city is calm, but strewn with wreckage.

The riot started last evening at about 8 o'clock, following one of the many arguments of working men over the payment of the 6-cent fare on the street cars. It reached its height at midnight, when a mob of about 500 stormed the car barn and set fire to the building and employment office. The rioters then moved on to the city hall, where they began to break windows and set fire to the building. The police were helpless during the night. The constabulary by the officers only managed to prevent the mobs from wrecking the building and stealing cars.

A truck carrying United States mail was attacked by a mob, shortly before midnight, as it was trying to reach an interurban on the outskirts of the city. The driver ran down three persons, and Chief of Police Hansen held off the mob with revolvers.

Mr. Ridgeway, while endeavoring to climb on a car, fell through the roof, and his right leg was nearly severed. Doctors at the hospital announced today that he was dying.
For hours during the night the mobs ran cars on Western avenue, the main business street, and during the morning spent its time demolishing the cars. At one corner the cars were piled and set on fire. This morning two cars were burned. The company was unable to run all but seven cars in the barn after the trouble broke out near the Police Station.
The cars were being upset and mashed, and a short distance from the City Hall, the Council was forced to evacuate the city hall under an ordinance giving the city power to regulate fares. The Commissioner of the city, who had been in office since 1912, when the mobs had already exploded. The commissioner had announced that he would not accept the franchise and the Council was finally forced to adjourn.

All street-car service is suspended until the effort is made to clear away the wreckage. Officials of the company said it would be a week before cars could operate, even if it was decided to continue interurban cars are forced to stop at the city limits with drivers, fearing the mobs.

THIRTY-SIX WARSHIPS OF PACIFIC FLEET "HOME." Dreadnaughts, Cruisers, Destroyers and Auxiliaries Drop Anchor in Gray
Dawn off San Diego Coast.

To avoid delay in fitting over the deck the bottom of torpedo-boat destroyers which in voyage formation were strung out for several miles, the admiral had them chained together three abreast for the canal passage. Such a thing, it is said by high naval authorities, was never undertaken before. The plan was carried through successfully.

PERSONNEL OF FLEET.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 6.—The six dreadnaughts anchored at the head of the fleet at the Coronado Islands tonight are the largest class in the United States Navy—the flagship New Mexico, Mississippi, Wyoming, Arkansas, New York and Texas. With them are over a score of destroyers, with their mother ship, the scout cruiser Birmingham. The older warships
Georgia and Vermont and the cruiser Montana were already at anchor off Los Coronados when Admiral Rod-man's armada arrived. Admiral Rod-man's fighting ships, the first dreadnaughts to visit the Pacific shores, had steamed almost steadily for eighteen days on a 4,000-mile voyage from Hampton Roads, Va.

Four of the dreadnaughts—the New York, Texas, Arkansas and Wyoming—composed the major part of Admiral Rodman's sixth battle squadron, which, as one of the fastest of Admiral Sir David Beatty's Grand Fleet, plied the German in their holes behind Heligoland.

The echo of the anchor chains had scarcely ceased at dawn as the big ships came to anchor when scores of jacks went over the sides in ladders and began the task of painting the ship's sides. The turrets and the big guns, as well as masts and hatchways, all came in for a bright coat of gray. Decks were hoyoned and bright work was polished, and nightfall found the war vessels in readiness for the review.

News that Admiral Rodman's fleet was lying off Los Coronados was sent to San Diego earlier in the day, and there was a constant procession of motor boats bearing sightseers that braved the swell outside the harbor in order to get an early view of the fighting ships. The mor-torboats darted in and about the war vessels like pilot fish about a shark, and causing Capt. Twining, chief-of-staff on board the New Mexico, to remark:

"We must be getting an unofficial reception."

Though Admiral Rodman had signaled an order on anchoring that commanders of other warships need not pay their respects or come aboard, many visits were paid by the ships' officers to the commander-
in-chief during the day.

The following ships and their commanding officers were present tonight off Los Coronados: New Mexico, Capt. A. L. Willard; Mississippi,
Capt. W. F. Moffett; New York,
Capt. W. V. Pratt; Texas, Capt. F.

H. Schofield; Wyoming, Capt. H. H.
Christy; Arkansas, Capt. L. R. de Stagner; Georgia, Capt. L. C. Palmer; Vermont, Capt. F. H. Clark; Birmingham, Capt. F. T. Evans;
Montana, Capt. G. C. Day; Yarnall, Commander W. F. Halsey; Rathburn, Commander T. A. Symington; Wicks, Commander J. S. Barlow;

mander H. L. Gushier; Tarbell, ant-Commander J. C. Jennings;

roth; Boggs, Commander H. V. Mc-Kittich; Ward, Commander M. S.

Stewart; Thatcher, Commander L. P.
Treadwell; Walker, Lieutenant-Commander J. F. Meier; Crosby, Lieutenant-Commander F. T. Verry; Ludlow, Commander H. K. Kewitt; Four destroyers, the Rizal, Anthony, Buchanan and Woolsey, slipped into San Diego after midnight, making seven destroyers of the fleet already in this harbor.

FIRST AT RENDEZVOUS.
The battleship Georgia was the first battleship to anchor at the rendezvous after an eighteen-day trip from Boston. The other vessels came from Hampton Roads.

The Georgia came to anchor at the rendezvous fixed for the fleet south of Coronado Island at 12:44
p.m. yesterday, and her movement, as well as those of other ships of the fleet, which arrived there yesterday, was veiled in secrecy. This was done to keep small pleasure vessels from the anchorage until daylight today, because of possible danger to the small craft among the ships' officers to the commander-
in-chief during the day.

The following ships and their commanding officers were present to-
ico, Capt. A. L. Willard; Mississippi,
Capt. W. F. Moffett; New York,

LONG BEACH TO

Details of Programme Made Public at Last Hour.

Brilliant Officers' Ball at Virginia Saturday.

Dances, Fireworks, Rides to Make Sailors Happy.

Long Beach's programme for the entertainment of the men and officers of the Pacific Fleet was made public for the first time yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce committees in charge of arrangements.

The city's share of the armada is scheduled to drop anchor off shore at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

As soon as the vessels have found their berth, the reception committee from Long Beach will board the flagship of the fleet, the New Mexico, and extend greetings to Admiral Hugh Rodman and Secretary Daniels.

Hotel Virginia will be the scene of a brilliant banquet and grand ball in honor of the officers of the fleet, Saturday evening. Guests will assemble for the banquet at 7 o'clock, at which time the regular guests at the hotel have been requested to vacate the big dining-room.

Walter J. Desmond, Long Beach
Postmaster, will be the toastmaster.
The Long Beach municipal band, regarded as an excellent musical organization, will play at the grand ball. J. J. Mottell and W. L. Camp have charge of the floor arrangements.

FOR THE GOBS.

While the officers are being dined and danced at the hotel, Saturday evening, the men of the fleet on shore leave will be the guests of the Long Beach War Camp Community Service Committee at a big street-dance, on Cedar avenue between Ocean boulevard and Broad way. Music will be furnished by a band from one of the warships and a local jazz orchestra.

Saturday afternoon and evening the men will also be entertained with a programme of sports and amusements on the beach.

At 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, there will be at the end of the Silver Spray pier one of the most elaborate set-piece parties the fleet has ever seen in the Southland. The pyrotechnic show Saturday night is expected to be one of the main Long Beach attractions during the fleet's stay.

Sunday morning the churches of Long Beach will be available to take the men for a sightseeing trip about Long Beach and vicinity. Ocean boulevard and Cedar avenue will be the starting point. Streets along the route to be taken by the sightseers have been especially decorated.

MUSIC SUNDAY.
At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon a special community singing service will be held in Pacific Park. There will also be a band concert in the park at that hour.

Monday, another opportunity to see the beach city and surrounding country by automobile will be given the visitors at the same hours, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The Polytechnic High School baseball grounds and Y.M.C.A. indoor ball grounds at the foot of Locust avenue have been thrown open to the sailors as a number of inter-ship contests will probably be played at Long Beach during the fleet's visit.

Under the auspices of the War Camp Community Service, a ball will be given in the Municipal Auditorium, Monday evening. The municipal band and Baker's Jazz Band will furnish the music. W.
L. Camp and J. J. Mottell will be in charge of the floor. Refreshments will be served. All men in uniform in any branch of the service will be admitted free of charge.

Monday evening, also, a dance on the battleship Wyoming will be attended by the fleet. There will be a fireworks display on the Silver Spray pier again Monday evening.

The sightseeing trips by automobile will be repeated, and there will be another dance in the auditorium in the evening, under the auspices of the War Camp Community Service. A pyrotechnic display will be given in the evening.

RODMAN'S RECORD IN WAR.

Admiral of Pacific Fleet with Four of Armada's Ships Saw Hard Service.

ABOARD FLAGSHIP NEW MEX-ICO OFF LOS CORONADOS, Aug. 6.— Admiral Hugh Rodman, commander of the Pacific Fleet, swung himself down the ladder that led from the high bridge of the flagship New Mexico and stepping briskly to the quarterdeck went to his cabin where he eased himself in a big armchair. He had observed with keen eye the great feet under his orders, as it dropped its mudhook overboard off Los Coronados. Turning to his desk on which were autographed photographs of the King and Queen of Belgium, King George of England and President Wilson—tokens of appreciation for what the admiral and his sixth battle squadron had done in siding the British navy to look the Germans behind Heligoland light—Admiral Rodman became reminiscent and commented to tell of the work of the sixth battle squadron, four of whose ships—the Wyoming, Arkansas, New York and Texas—are now with the Pacific Fleet.

"The American fleet left for England in November, 1917," said Admiral Rodman, "and we did not get back until the following December.
After rounding Cape Wrath we joined Admiral Sir David Beatty's grand sea fleet in the North Sea and were immediately assigned to a place of honor, that of one of the two fast wings of the British fleet.
From the time we joined Sir David Beatty's forces until we left the American warships took part in all regular duties of duty in the North Sea with the British fleet as a whole and not infrequently we worked to smaller detachments in convoy work, and scouting, but always with a mixed force of British and American ships on which occasions sometimes I was in command. I had two or three British admirals under my command."

FRANSES BRITISH FLEET.
"Let me say this right here," added Admiral Rodman, "had it not been for the British fleet the war would have been won in six months and in Germany unqualifiedly. The British fleet has been the backbone upon which the security of the British Empire rests."

The admiral's true great sparkled with evident delight as he told of the amusements with which the British behind the efficiency and celerity with which the American fleet worked in conjunction with the British navy.

"There are two things which the British venerate above everything else; that is royalty and the British navy. When we became part of the grand sea fleet and when we proved our efficiency we were given every confidence. They gave us their signals, their codes, all information directing to policy and confided to us their most secret codes, which was very much like the Jews of old when they entered the Holy of Holies."

"They also gave me secret information on their espionage system which I have never even given to our own government. This system enabled us to know whenever the information was exchanged between German ships stuck their heads out from their holes. The Germans could not have steamed coffee in a pot for an hour but we would have known it."

The admiral said that much other the American and British fleets in regard to fire control, interior discipline and matters of all kinds relating to the work at hand.

Instruments were also exchanged.
"The British marveled at our quick use of the English codes and signals," continued the Pacific Fleet's admiral, "but in spite of all this cooperation that part which surprised them most was that we never lost our Americanism in the slightest degree."

The flagship New York, which Admiral Rodman commanded, was unsuccessfully attacked by a submarine in the North Sea.
"The Germans pursued us," said the admiral, "and then got afraid of our starboard propeller and I think that one was sunk. It was off Norway and we ran into a flock of submarines. We scattered our ships and torpedoes were discharged at us. Two torpedoes were fired at the Florida, which made a quick turn so that one torpedo passed thirty yards astern and the other thirty feet aboard her bow."

ETERNAL VIGILANCE.
"The North Sea was a mass of mines and it required the closest attention in the handling of our ships. I never had my clothes off the whole time at sea and neither myself nor the officers and crew slept ashore during our entire stay aboard. We had to be in constant readiness and there was never more than four hours' shore leave given."

Admiral Rodman is said to be the first American officer to receive the decoration of Knight of Bath. conferred upon him by King George for his services in the North Sea.
It is not recorded that any one has before him received the decoration of Admiral Rodman, who is extremely democratic, as Admiral Sir Hugh Rodman, though King George once asked him to dine:

"And how is Lady Rodman?"
"I have not heard from my wife recently," replied Admiral Rodman and King George laughed. Admiral Rodman said that King George was extremely democratic and that the King never visited the grand fleet without spending an hour with him.
Admiral Rodman has spent much of his life on board ship and like an old sea dog has a fine code of conduct for what he terms "too much paper work." He was referring to office correspondence in the navy bureau.

"I have the finest filing system in the world," said the admiral. "It is a highly-developed type of waste basket. A lot of stuff that would go to the rounds gets into that waste basket. There is nothing of the highbrow about me. I believe in hard work and personality. It took me five years to get through Annapolis and I stood sixty-one out of a class of sixty-two and if I had to go back again I know I would not get through at all."

Admiral Rodman is a lover of fishing and hunting and a fine judge of dogs.

Colored Hero of Two Wars is Here to do His Patriotic "Dut."

If you were going about on crutches, bearing the scars of 14 shrapnel wounds, wearing three silver plates in your head, three in your left shoulder, one in your right shoulder and three more in your leg, would you be going around singing
"Smiles" to raise funds for the entertainment of our honored guests, the members of the Pacific Fleet?
This is the physical condition of Sergeant Frank Mason, colored, a hero of two wars, who arrived in Los Angeles yesterday from San Francisco, having been granted leave of absence from the hospital at the Presidio that he might come south and do his share in entertaining the fighting fleet guests. Sergeant Mason sang last night at Solomon's Dance Hall, assisting in raising a zeddy sum to be turned over to the Entertainment Committee, and he will sing and speak before the marines when they arrive in Los Angeles.
Many of the scars on the body of Mason were received at Argonne, but his first wounds were received while he was with the Tenth Cavalry in Mexico. At Carlisle, Mex., a score of his buddies were massacred and in that fight Mason was wounded in the head, necessitating the placing of silver plates. Among other patriotic work, Sergeant Mason is credited with having sold millions in Liberty Bonds and as a testimony to this fact he wears the United States Treasury Department medal.

JUDGES TO SEE FLEET.
There will be no presiding judge in the Superior Courts on Saturday.
The judges, who cannot legally declare the courts closed, want to see the fleet arrive and will abstain themselves. The County Clerk, probate and Supervisors departments as well as other departments will be open for business.

WARSAW ABASHED AT DISARMAMENT TALK.

TWO AMERICAN PACIFISTS
MAKE PLEA WHILE POLAND

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WARSAW, July 21 (via Paris, Aug. 6).—Two American pacifists, one from Chicago, are advancing pleas for disarmament at Warsaw while Poland faces three powerful foes.

The Americans are Florence Holbrook, principal of the Forestville Girls' School at Chicago, and Marion
B. Burritt of New York, a writer.
Both were delegates to the woman's congress in Switzerland. They have come through Austria, Czechoslovakia and Bolshevik Hungary and are leaving soon for Berlin, whence they are returning to America via Paris.

Their arguments have not been welcomed in Warsaw. They have interviewed Mme. Paderewski, who told them the freedom and safety of Poland came first in her thoughts.
Certain women members of the Polish Diet expressed amazement that Americans should preach internationalism in Poland when the country is solving its greatest national problems.

Against the minority clause in the Polish treaty, the aching question of the day, both women spoke emphatically. They declared this clause, according to separate rights to Jews, will widen the breach between Jews and Poles, accentuating their cultural differences.

EFFORTS TO ADJUST SHIPWORKERS' WAGE.

REPORTS OF $1 A DAY IN-

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—Efforts to span the difference between maximum wage offers of the employers and minimum demands of the workers were made at a very rapid reference here today of representatives of the shipbuilders and shipbuilding employees of the Pacific Coast and international maritime union. Published reports that the employees had demanded $1 a day increase for journeymen, which was refused by the employers, were denied by James O'Connell, chairman of the metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor, who is a delegate at the conference.

The meeting today was a continuation of the conference that has been progressing for three weeks.
According to O'Connell it was expected that the conferences would end this week.

The conference is endeavoring to fix a satisfactory wage scale for the 12,500 shipyard workers on the Pacific Coast.

Oliver J. Olson, prominent shipman here, today advised the marine department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce,
the Ocean Mail Steamship Company, in which he is interested, to inaugurate a service between this port and the west coast of Mexico and Central America about September 15.

The steamer Paraiso will be put into service first, followed later by the Florence Olson, he said. Both vessels are of 1500 tons.

BELA KUN'S DAWNFALL IS USED AS WARNING.

CONSERVATIVE SOCIALISTS SAY

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—Bela Kun's downfall has been seized on by the conservative Socialists of Germany as an opportunity to warn the nation against the radicals, such as independent Socialists and communists whose platform is the same as that of the short-lived Hungarian government.

From this source was issued a bitter denunciation of the government by the workers' councils, existence, the Hungarian communal public capitulated. The communists was uprooted once more to leave the town by a crowd of men. They made. They left behind them a heap of ruins, compared to which the estate left by Wilhelm's junkers and generals is a true paradise. Their socialization was nothing but robbery, demolition, destruction."

ASSASSINATION IS EASIER.

The long-discussed matter of the assessments for improvement of Carillo street, from Bellevue avenue to West Kensington road, was again before the City Council yes-adopted the recommendations of the Public Works Committee and modified the assessments on a portion of the property that previously had borne the expense of making extensive fills in the street. The conten-

REVENUE PROBLEM TO BE DISCUSSED DAILY.

COUNCIL FINANCE COMMITTEE RAISES STORM OF WORDS
BY SEEKING ADVICE.

Announcement was made at yesterday's session of the City Council by Chairman Conaway of the Finance Committee that this committee will meet daily at 1:30 o'clock for the purpose of revising the license ordinance, and that every member of the Council is asked to attend these sessions and give such suggestions as he may have for raising required city revenues.

The statement of Councilman Conaway precipitated considerable discussion. Some of the Council members indicated their belief that the Finance Committee would like to evade the direct responsibility of providing for the raising of more revenue, and this was promptly denied. The suggestion was made that alternative plans for money-raising be formulated and submitted to the Council for its selection of the one that appears most desirable, and that the Finance Committee then proceed on this line, working out the details.

One plan proposed is to place a tax on businesses in proportion to the gross business transacted yearly.
Another is to make a flat license tax on every line of business or profession that is conducted for gain.
The Finance Committee is in favor of a single of trouble, at any rate, for if any further taxes be placed upon certain lines of business already paying license fees, there will be vigorous protests, that these businesses are unjustly and unfairly burdened.

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
COPENHAGEN, Aug. 6.—French troops arrived at Budapest yesterday, and British troops under Gen. Gordon and American forces arrived there today, according to dispatches received here from Vienna quoting the newspapers of that city.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Nicholas Misiu of the Rumanian peace delegation was summoned before the supreme council today, which gave him a communication for his government saying that the Rumanian ultimatum to Hungary cannot be recognized by the Peace Conference and calling upon the Rumanians to live up to the armistice terms.

PARIS, Aug. 5.—Czechoslovak good condition, with their accessories, 50 per cent. of all live stock animals of all kinds which exist at present, according to the records in Hungary; 20,000 carloads of wheat; 10,000 carloads of corn; 5000 carloads of barley and fodder; 30 per cent. of all agricultural machinery of every kind existing in Hungary;
all floating material of all kinds which belongs to the Rumanian state or to Rumanian companies or citizens, taken away from Rumania by the enemy and now in Hungarian waters; 50 per cent. of all floating material of every kind belonging to the Hungarian state; all Rumanian prisoners and hostages and all Rumanian deserters of every nationality, now refugees in Hungary at the signature of this agreement.

FORCES TO REMAIN.
"For the purpose of delivering these articles to Rumanian soldiers who were unable to cultivate their land because they were kept mobilized, to guarantee the safety of the state they expressed the hope that usually disturbed the peace and because they lacked the necessary manpower, which was taken from them by the enemy, the Hungarian supreme command agrees to maintain, at the expense of the Hungarian state, during the entire period which the Rumanian troops occupy Hungarian territory west of the Tisza (Theiss) River, all the royal Hungarian forces which were in these regions at the time of the signing of the present agreement, and to procure the coal necessary for the circulation required by Rumanian military necessity in the region west of the Tisza.

The royal Rumanian army will not be withdrawn to the east of the Tisza until the supreme Hungarian commander has carried out the conditions imposed in Paragraph A.
(For the delivery of war material.) After minor details covering the delivery of live stock and animals, the ultimatum provides:
"The present demand must be accepted or rejected. In its entirety, consequently counter-proposals will not be received. The time for reply expires at 10 o'clock p.m. August 5.

"In case these conditions are not acceptable, the Rumanian supreme command will remove from Hungary, without regard to proportion, material and animals which may be necessary to Rumania to repair at least in part the sad devastation wrought by the enemy, who during all the time of his occupation, and on the occasion of the peace of Bucharest never knew the meaning of humanitarian sentiments."

PARIS, Tuesday, Aug. 5.—The supreme council devoted most of its time today to a discussion of the Hungarian situation. Instructions were framed for the inter-allied military mission in Budapest, which is ordered to effect a withdrawal of the Rumanians from Budapest as soon as the Hungarian red guard is disarmed.

POLICE DISPERSE RIOTERS.

The Limitless Possibilities of the DUO-ART PIANO

THE DUO-ART is a new type of pianoforte of the highest modern development. Unlike the piano, it is not merely a passive instrument, whose power of expression depends upon the presence of the gifted artist. Through the rare sensitiveness of Duo-Art action and the medium of Duo-Art Records, this remarkable pianoforte is able to reproduce the performance of the world's greatest pianists in all the individual detail of their original interpretations.

Besides reproducing exactly the playing of master pianists, the Duo-Art is also a perfect player piano and a regular piano of exceptional tone and action.
The Duo-Art is made in Steinway, Weber, Steck and Stroud models, thus encompassing a wide range of prices which make possible its introduction into any home where musical culture

PARIS, Aug. 6.—The Austrian counter-proposals to the peace terms were handed to the Allied mission at St. Germain-an-Laye at 12:15 o'clock today.

The counter-proposals were brought at once to Paris and delivered to the supreme council of the Peace Conference.

The Austrians state they also believe they have been greatly overcharged, as two-thirds of the debt of the Austro-Hungarian state is being loaded upon them. They say the proportion is too heavy, considering their small population, and they are not sure they can live under such conditions.

A special appeal was made by the Austrians for an oral discussion of the treaty.

Although the Austrians indicated very clearly their intention of signing they expressed the hope that some modification may be effected.

EX-KAISER'S DELAY FATAL.
BERLIN, Aug. 5.—The New Berliner Zeitung today publishes excerpts from a lengthy description by Prince Max of Baden, former imperial Max Chancellor, of a telephone conversation he had with the then Emperor William, November 8, 1918. The conversation lasted twenty minutes.

"The Kaiser was very violent and frightfully unaware of the attitude of the troops to him," says the description. "We spoke of a military expedition against Berlin, but he refused to listen to my recommendation that he abdicate. Had the general staff told him November 8, as it did, November 9, the truth about the army, I have no doubt that the Kaiser would have abdicated the evening of the eighth."
"Then it would in human calculation have been possible for the Majority Socialists to keep the workmen in the factories. Certainly there would have been an uprising but only by the radical element.
The troops in Berlin would have conducted themselves more reliably."
"One of the most dangerous points of contact between the rioting workmen and the soldiers was the fact that the Kaiser had not abdicated."

ST. CHARGE ROBBERY IN SHOE PRICES

Federal Report Shows Excessive Profits Taken

From Packer to Dealer Profits Exorbitant

Consumer Pays Graduated Scale of High-Handed Profits

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The price of shoes was declared today to be excessive profits taken by every factor in the shoe industry, in a report by the Federal Trade Commission to Congress today. The packers were charged with having begun the hoarding of shoe prices by an increase in the price of the supply of which they were in control. On top of this, the packers have taken "exceptional profits" while the shoe manufacturers have demanded an "unusual margin" for the retailers have charged prices that are "not justifiable."

The commission's report for the four-year period from 1914 to 1918.

CONSUMER VICTIM.

The public, said the report, is to pay prices for shoes that only could not be justified by the cost of the shoes.

UNPRECEDENTED PROFITS.

While noting that because of increases in the cost of materials, the shoe industry has been bound to advance prices.

UNIONS FAIL TO SCARE CONGRESS.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Soviet government in the United States, having for its first ladder rung the nationalization of railroads under the so-called Plumb plan, bumped against a stone wall of opposition in the House Committee on Interstate Commerce today. Two labor leaders breathing the gospel of Trotsky and Lenin were hog-tied in their own intemperate statements and made to realize that some verbal responsibility is still expected of them by the government of the United States.

One of these men was Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who, under sharp cross-examination, was compelled to say that he and the organization he represented were not in favor of force to nationalize the railroads. When asked whether he would favor nationalizing of other industries Mr. Stone refused to commit himself.

Among other utterances Stone asserted that the situation was so desperate, in his opinion, that it might be necessary to use firing squads on profiteers. Unless Congress found a solution of the high-cost-of-living problem soon, he said, America would see "its very worst period."

The committee was unmoved when Mr. Stone made the direct threat that the rejection of the Plumb plan, which means the turning of the railroads over to the unions, would mean the overthrow of the present Congress and the election of men to the national Legislature which would put such a plan into execution.

Asked concerning statements from union leaders that they would "sew up the railroads," Mr. Stone said: "It is the rankest kind of nonsense to say they will not run if this plan fails of adoption. We know they will run; the government will operate them because the people must live and railroads are essential to their welfare."

GOT ALL THEY COULD.

"Do you know of anybody who did not get all they could out of the war?" asked Representative Montague of Virginia.

"I don't know of anybody," Stone replied.

"Union labor got all it could?"

"Yes," Mr. Montague proceeded. "You know somebody who did not get all they should have got—the soldiers and sailors in France."

Stone replied he quite agreed with that, adding that somebody else got the soldiers' share.

Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, was under cross examination much of the day and not tomorrow will be the author of the Plumb plan get a chance to explain why he thinks nationalizing the railroads and eliminating from control the capital which created the great transportation systems of the country will make an industrial Utopia here.

Mr. Morrison made some statements before the committee which stiffened the opposition and caused some of the members of the committee to assert defiance to the plan and to voice rejection of the whole soviet proposal of the labor union, so far as the railroads are concerned.

FAILS TO INTIMIDATE.

Even when Morrison voiced the implied threat that the "burden" of the union leaders (which he said was heavy)—that they might be unable, during the period of unrest sweeping the country, to control the workers—and declared his opinion that a "revolution" would result the committee failed to gasp. Pressed to elucidate his statement he said he meant by the use of the term "revolution" that general strikes "might ensue."

Members of the committee from the South as well as in the North are in accord that Congress should not surrender abjectly a second time to the men who put over the infamous Adamson law and apparently this sentiment is well nigh universal in both houses of Congress. There has been a sharp reaction, and while a day or two ago it seemed that the labor men might create another successful stampede, it is apparent from remarks of members of the committee and other strong members of Congress that the original plan to devise some legal steps for the return of the roads to their owners will proceed along the lines originally laid down. This Chairman Egan says, will be the underlying policy of the committee.

While the committee was hearing the leaders on the Plumb plan, fourteen railroad unions were placing preeminent demands before Director-General Hines for increase of wages in practically every division of railroad endeavor.

DEMAND IMMEDIATE INCREASE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—Acting as a unit for the first time in the presentation of wage demands, the fourteen principal railroad unions today, by expressing to Director-General Hines their disapproval of President Wilson's proposal that Congress create a commission to consider increased pay, declared that wage questions must be settled immediately.

A general programme to meet the present crisis, involving the threat of a nation-wide strike, was submitted to the Director-General. It suggested that the money to provide increased pay should come from an appropriation by Congress, to be followed by appropriate freight rate advances.

This "temporary relief" must be accompanied by a determined effort to reduce the cost of living.

Permanent solution of the railroad problem was declared to depend upon the removal of returns to capital as the sole purpose of operation, and the Director-General, accordingly, was asked to recommend to President Wilson that he attempt to obtain early passage by Congress of unopposed legislation to eliminate private capital from control of the railroads and to give the employees a share in the profits. The unions declared the belief of the workers that transportation rates should be sufficient to guarantee just wages, maintain the properties, and give equitable returns on money invested.

UNIONS UNIFIED.

Interesting as were the suggestions for removing the menace of a nation-wide strike, the unified action of the fourteen organizations attracted equal attention. Labor leaders who were questioned declined to say whether the unions would act as a whole in the future, but declared they were going through with the present situation as one body. The result will be to put the solid weight of 8,000,000 persons, virtually the entire rail transportation personnel of the United States, back of the demands, with the possibility, as never before, of the paralysis of the country's life if a general strike is called.

The present situation was said to be similar, but infinitely more dangerous. Not only are the four brotherhoods involved, but all the other unions, also, which have to deal with maintenance of equipment and the moving of trains.

ensation which would at least equal the purchasing power of their wages. Rates of pay, it was said, were in no way correlated to transportation charges. The plan for a Congressional commission was disapproved because "it means months of delay at a time when the questions involved require immediate settlement," the programme said.

"You already have in the board of railroad wages and working conditions the necessary machinery to dispose of these questions, and we ask that their function be restored and they be allowed to pass upon the questions submitted to them and that their findings be placed before the representatives of the reorganized organizations for their consideration and be mutually agreed upon before being issued."

"The money with which to pay these increases should, in our opinion, be raised by an appropriation by Congress. This appropriation to be of sufficient amount to temporarily take care of immediate needs. In the meantime, let the proper rate-making body make a careful study as to what, if any, increase should be made in passenger and freight rates, prompt action in this regard being both essential and desirable. This will only give temporary relief and must be accompanied, or immediately followed, by an effort to not only prevent further increases in the cost of living, but to secure a reduction therein."

"Any permanent solution of the railroad problem must necessarily remove the element of returns to capital as the sole purpose of operation. Therefore, we ask that you urge upon the President the necessity for the prompt passage by Congress of the appropriation bill to meet the emergency now existing."

Interesting as were the suggestions for removing the menace of a nation-wide strike, the unified action of the fourteen organizations attracted equal attention. Labor leaders who were questioned declined to say whether the unions would act as a whole in the future, but declared they were going through with the present situation as one body. The result will be to put the solid weight of 8,000,000 persons, virtually the entire rail transportation personnel of the United States, back of the demands, with the possibility, as never before, of the paralysis of the country's life if a general strike is called.

Co-operation between the four great brotherhoods—engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen—for the first time several years ago proved the power of united action in passage of the Adamson act.

The present situation was said to be similar, but infinitely more dangerous. Not only are the four brotherhoods involved, but all the other unions, also, which have to deal with maintenance of equipment and the moving of trains.

The programmes submitted to Director-General Hines declared that the employees were entitled to com-

TROOP TRAINS HELD UP BY RAIL STRIKE.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEWPORT NEWS (Va.) Aug. 6.—Veterans of the world war, some of them with wound stripes and two years' service, men who risked their all for the freedom of the world, were held up here five hours today when ready to return to their homes because striking railway shop men refused to work on troop trains.

Troop movement officers said the men bound for home would not have gotten away at all had there not been a surplus of several cars in the yard. When this surplus is used up no one knows how the men will be moved.

The same conditions prevail at Norfolk and the army base at Langley. The railway shop men are considering the possibility of having the troops moved from New York to New York today were to the effect that the railway system there are in danger of a tie-up similar to that which has paralyzed other cities on the eastern coast.

The shop men, according to army officers, gave no reason for going back on their promise to see that troop trains kept moving, nor did they offer any excuse for holding up the men bound for home.

In addition to the troop trains leaving today several hospital trains were held up. These men were on strike throughout the country and they had been in motion by soldiers stationed there.

MAIL TRAINS UNHINDERED.

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—Leaders of the Chicago district council of the Federated Railway Shopmen Union said tonight that a conservative estimate 275,000 shop men were on strike throughout the country and that the movement was spreading. They declared that no violence would be committed by the organization and that so far no mail trains had been interfered with.

District Attorney Roy said that evidence of interference with the mail train schedules would bring action against the shopmen responsible for calling the strike. He also said he had questioned several representatives of the shop men today.

L. M. Hawver, president of the district council, said so far as he knew none of the shop men had been summoned by the District Attorney or questioned. As to responsibility for the strike, he said, the rank and file had demanded a strike in spite of the wishes of their grand lodge presidents and that the men were determined to remain on strike until their demands for eighty-five cents an hour for mechanics and sixty cents for helpers had been granted.

CHILE GLAD TO JOIN LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

SANTIAGO (Chile) Aug. 6.—The Chilean Senate unanimously approved today the entrance of Chile into the League of Nations. Louis Borgeo, the Foreign Minister, in introducing the bill providing for Chile's participation in the league, said:

"After four years of horrible war the people's spirit demands an assurance that there shall be no repetition of its horrors. The noble minds of the world's statesmen have conspired in devising a legal organization based on the free and deliberate acceptance of all nations. All Chile concurs in this idea, which has long been supported by our country, co-operating always with conciliation and arbitration in the basis principle that faith in treaties and the fulfillment of obligations under the sovereign law of nations is the only peace-keeping rule among peoples."

The bill was passed by a vote of 25 to 1. The opposition was limited to a few members of the extreme right, who were taken for real patriots. (New York Times.)

BULLETIN.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 6.—Tramway service was suspended completely today and there was virtually no bread to be had as a result of the strike movement which began with the police and now includes the tramway men and the bakers. Municipal employees last night voted to give twenty-four hours' strike notice unless demands of the tramway men were met.

Physicians today adopted a resolution in favor of organizing on a trades union basis.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—The care exercised by the postoffice inspectors since the discovery of bombs addressed to public officials and millionaires first drew attention to plots by the reds yesterday led to the discovery of a six-inch cylinder containing explosives by an employee in the general postoffice at Thirty-third street and Eighth avenue.

The cartridge was marked with the device of the French munitions factory. Its explosion in the mail would have caused death or serious injury to the person handling it.

Secrecy was maintained by the authorities concerning the identity of the person to whom the deadly package was addressed.

BROOKLYN CAR MEN TIE UP MANY LINES.

THOUSANDS FORCED TO WALK TO MANHATTAN AND WOMEN SUFFER MOST.

NEW YORK, Aug. 6.—Every traction line in Brooklyn was affected by the strike of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit employees today and the strikers, who claim great accession to their ranks, think that by midnight all the men will be out and the entire system paralyzed. Last night about 3000 men were claimed by the strikers. There are about 12,000 in all employed. Receiver Garrison, however, said that only 10 per cent. of the whole were out. The rest were merely idly idling in the streets.

But one elevated road was running to the Brooklyn bridge and the subway, as far as they went, served the Brooklyn people going to and from Manhattan. The subway had long walks in the rain tonight after coming out. Mr. Garrison asked for police protection for the men still working. This was promised by Commissioner Enright.

Mayor Hylan said the city would tolerate no violence in the matter of the strike. There was no violence to speak of today but the police are on the watch for any interference with the operation of the cars.

The inconvenience to the Brooklyn public was very great. Hundreds of thousands were compelled to walk to and from Manhattan, the women suffering most. Other thousands got rides on trucks and in jitneys which did a thriving business. Many concerns made arrangements to convey their employees by car and truck.

The prospect of the strike spreading to Manhattan is being considered. Louis Friderick, counsel for the union, wired W. R. Fitzgerald, general organizer of the Amalgamated Association of Street Car and Electric Employees at Detroit, asking him to advise the International Brotherhood of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Engineers, notified Mr. Shea and Chairman Gardner, and will refuse to furnish power to the B.E.T. and would assist the strikers in every possible way.

George Haeffler, business agent of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Engineers and coal passers of the International Brotherhood of Stationary Engineers, notified Mr. Shea and Chairman Gardner, and will refuse to furnish power to the B.E.T. and would assist the strikers in every possible way.

CHICAGO PLANS FIGHT ON CAR-FARE ADVANCE.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CHICAGO, Aug. 6.—The State Utilities Board tonight announced new rates of fare on the Chicago surface and elevated lines as follows:

Surface lines, 7 cents for adults and 4 cents for children between the ages of 7 and 12 years.

Elevated lines, 8 cents to all points within the city limits of Chicago, and to the western suburbs; 14 cents to Evanston. This includes the 4 cents city fare and the 6 cents fare to Evanston.

The new fares go into effect at one minute after midnight on Thursday night if the traction companies file schedules tomorrow agreeing to put these fares into effect.

Ardern, counsel for the elevated lines, was present when the decision of the commission was announced. He said the elevated lines would accept. No representative of the surface lines was present to make a statement. It was increased to 14 cents from 10 cents. It was accepted and schedules filed accordingly.

Tomorrow Mayor Thompson, Corporation Counsel Etzel and Special Traction Counsel Cleveland will open a new campaign against the rise in fares. Talk of forfeiture of the traction company's franchise for violation of the franchise ordinance fixing 5-cent fare is increasing at the City Hall. This is the first of three lines of attack planned by the Mayor and others who propose to keep up the fight.

If this fails, it is expected an effort will be made to prevent the surface and elevated lines from raising fares. The third way out is to get an appeal from the decision of the commission, to be carried to the San Francisco County Court.

Look In The Sky For Miss Billie Rhodes Tomorrow

(BILLIE RHODES AND PILOT THOMPSON AT THE TAKE-OFF)

If something falls gently upon your head tomorrow don't think that you are the victim of an unseen hand bent upon your destruction. In truth an unseen hand will be the cause of it but a friendly one, withal, and very small and white. In short the missile will be in the form of a blue bonnet, in all probability, and will start upon its downward flight from an altitude of several thousand feet, the sender being Dainty Billie Rhodes, cinema star of the National Studios.

Soaring in an aeroplane piloted by David E. Thompson of the Mercury Aviation Company, Miss Rhodes will distribute these little bonnets. They are exact duplicates of the one worn by her in her latest stupendous feature, "The Blue Bonnet," which will have its first showing at the Kinema Theatre next Sunday. The flight will start from the Mercury field at eleven o'clock Friday morning and will continue over the business and residence sections of the city.

The management of the Kinema Theater has placed a number of free tickets in the souvenir bonnets and those fortunate enough to pick up the lucky ones will have gratis entertainment in store for them.

Dainty Billie has always been an ardent fan of aviation and is never happier than when looping the loop, doing a tail spin or any of the many stunts known to artists of the air.

Miss Rhodes is a strong booster for The Times' Flying Circus and her advice to those who would enjoy the pleasures of flying is to "get busy" and accept The Times' liberal offer.

new vantage points this evening for the arrival of the fleet at the Coronado Test City and points along the bay or to heights above city where a view may be obtained.

Every preparation possible to enable the officers and men of the fleet to see the fleet as it enters the harbor has been made. The formal program arranged for the two days, however, has been declared a half day for all merchants and business men that every one may have opportunity to see the fleet as it enters the harbor. The courts have ordered a three-day holiday and no one in the city should miss seeing the fleet. Citizens have their own particular spot to see the fleet selected for days, but how many have selected the spot will be seen tomorrow as the fleet enters the harbor.

There will be a holiday for San Diego by special proclamation of Mayor White and the City Board. Business houses usually will close and the entire city will give itself over to celebrating in honor of the fleet.

SCHOOL MUDDLE CONTINUES.

Hopes of an early legal settlement by the State Supreme Court of the Pasadena school superintendency dispute was blasted today when the school board received a telegram from City Attorney J. H. Howard, new in Sacramento, that the Supreme Court was unable to hear the case at this time.

The present school board contests the election by the outgoing board of Dr. John Franklin West as school superintendent. Both sides had hoped for a ruling now by the Supreme Court.

SEEK FOOD QUOTATIONS. The City Commission today authorized Chairman A. L. Hamilton to get from the quartermaster-general of the army quotations on flour, sugar and other food supplies, except meat, with a view to buying.

Chairman Hamilton reported he had visited Los Angeles and was not impressed by the government bacon being sold there, so it was decided to withhold purchases of bacon for the present, at least.

Member of Hospital Board Says Charges Were Baseless.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 6.—Satisfaction over the report of the State Board of Charities and Corrections as to the groundless charges against the Norwalk State Hospital was expressed today by John N. Anderson of Santa Ana, member of the board of managers of the institution.

"Members of the board have known from the first that there could be but one outcome to the investigation," said Anderson, "for our personal observation was such that we knew the charges could not be true. Such investigations cost many thousands of dollars, and it is regrettable that such groundless charges should be made."

Young Married Couple Face Larceny Charge.

Accident Results in Death from Blood Poison.

Christian Church Plans Home for Aged and Orphans.

LONG BEACH, Aug. 6.—Quantities of bedding, linen, silverware and wearing apparel, valued at more than $500, contained in a trunk, were recovered by the police in a room occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Irving Givens, newlyweds, at 624 West Ocean avenue.

The young couple, accused of stealing the goods from various apartment-houses from the lockers of the telephone operators employed by the Pacific Telephone Company, were taken into custody by the police, and are alleged to have confessed. They are being held in the City Jail, charged with grand larceny.

Mrs. Givens was formerly Miss Mabel Truitt, and until recently was employed as an operator by the Pacific company. She married Irving Givens about three months ago, at which time the pair are said to have started in to collect their household furnishings by the theft route.

The Givens Apartments, 421 East Third street, and the Renfrew apartments, 624 West Ocean boulevard, where the couple were apprehended, are two of the apartment-houses that were robbed by the couple, the police declare.

In their confession, according to the police, both the bride and groom endeavored to assume sole responsibility for the thefts, each stating that they desired to fit out their flat and were without funds to do it.

Suffering from blood poison which followed an accident in which he was badly burned, the groom, Walter E. Otto, 22 years old, died today in a local hospital. The youth came to Long Beach from Lodi, Cal., and had been employed in several different bakeries here during his two years' residence.

A plan was launched here today for the building of a home for the care of orphans and the indigent aged by the delegates to the annual convention of Christian churches of Southern California. Rev. J. H. Schorster addressed the delegates on the subject, after which Charles C. Chapman of Fullerton was named a chairman of a committee of eight to work out definite plans for such an institution.

It is proposed to locate this home in Southern California and to have it supported from all parts of the United States as one of the great benevolent enterprises of the church.

Miss Daisy June Trout, secretary of the international board of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, delivered a strong address today before a large assemblage on the growth of that important branch of the Christian church during the past year.

GUILTY OF FORGERY.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 6.—Leonard Rougel of this city, arrested this morning for passing worthless checks, was sentenced to six months in the County Jail in Judge Kline's court this morning. He disposed of eight checks amounting to $36. The checks were signed in some cases Robert Lee, and in others Lee Roberts.

DON'T WANT METER.

Tulare Water Users Cut Down Useless Waste.

TULARE, Aug. 6.—Threats that water users of Tulare would be compelled to go on the meter system has had the effect of materially reducing the consumption of city water for domestic purposes, according to the report of City Engineer Bosworth, who believes the present regulations will be effective and that no further measures will be necessary for the present.

Engineer Bosworth's report shows that during the last thirty days there was a saving of more than 4,000,000 gallons of water as compared with the same thirty-day period of last year.

IMPORTED LIQUOR RETURNED TO OWNER.

VISALIA, Aug. 6.—P. M. Baier, wealthy orchard owner of the Redbanks district, has had returned to him a consignment of imported liquor, which his chauffeur, Roy Roach, was bringing from San Francisco when it was seized by Federal officers and Roach placed under technical arrest charged with violation of the national prohibition law.

The Federal authorities in returning the liquor and offering their amends to Mr. Baier said the liquor had been purchased prior to July 1, when it had been held in storage in San Francisco and that the transfer later in the month, which was the occasion of the Federal action, was wholly within Mr. Baier's rights.

PORTERVILLE PLANS CIVIC IMPROVEMENT.

PORTERVILLE, Aug. 6.—Three important projects for civic improvement will be put up to the taxpayers for a vote as soon as necessary legal formalities can be fulfilled, according to a resolution which has been adopted by the City Council, authorizing Mayor W. S. Ribley to appoint a committee to report on plans.

Under the terms of this resolution estimates of the cost are to be furnished for acquiring a small addition to Luther Burbank Park and the creation there of a Greek theater; the acquisition of an additional half block of property on Main street and the construction of a new City Hall, and a comprehensive plan for new bridges over Porter Creek, which flows through the business district.

Present plans are for a single bond issue to provide the funds necessary for all three of these projects.

BIG PRICE FOR GRAPES.

DINUBA, Aug. 6.—Opening demand in eastern market centers has been especially keen for table grapes and this has been reflected in unusually high prices for fresh grapes, according to figures which are now becoming available.

The first car shipped to Philadelphia ground $2.25 and a Chicago shipment sent out about the same time from the Alta district is reported to have brought $2.75. As far as known here these are new record prices for this class of fruit.

BUYS FOODSTUFFS.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 6.—Mayor S. L. Berkley returned to Santa Monica from San Francisco this morning, announcing that the city will soon have 16,000 pounds of tomatoes and 27,000 pounds of bacon, a part of the excess government foodstuffs. It is thought that with the addition of freight and marketing expenses the bacon will sell for 33 cents a pound and the tomatoes for 14 cents.

VETERANS ORGANIZE.

Ontario Army Men to Join the National Movement.

ONTARIO, Aug. 6.—Returned army and navy men of Ontario in mass meeting at the Hotpoint Club last night effected a temporary organization with Archie D. Mitchell as president and G. Russell Jenkins as secretary, and appointed a committee to prepare the constitution and by-laws for a permanent association.

No name will be adopted until the one to be officially adopted by the national organization of returned service men of the world war is decided upon, as the local society expects to become a unit of the greater organization.

Named on the constitution committee were Mr. Mitchell, R. F. Price, E. J. Sandford and H. J. Caldwell. Plans were also outlined for working up enthusiasm in the organization and for a banquet at an early date.

LEAVES LARGE ESTATE.

Man who Dies at Redlands Wills Property to Brothers.

REDLANDS, Aug. 5.—F. X. Gravel, who died quite suddenly here a few days ago, left an estate worth more than $25,000. In his effects bank books with balances totaling more than $2000 have been found.

His will left certain properties in San Diego, California, and Redlands to his brothers, of which there are four. They probably live in Canada, for he was a French-Canadian, all the letters in his effects being written in French. Gravel has been here several months, and before that time was in San Diego, where he was a prominent in Masonic work, he being a thirty-second degree Mason. A. J. Demers of San Diego, executor of the will, came from San Diego to have charge of the burial.

SANTA MONICA AS HOST.

SANTA MONICA, Aug. 6.—Committees were appointed here today headed by Mayor S. L. Berkley to provide entertainment for that portion of the Pacific Fleet that will visit Santa Monica Saturday. Special concerts will be presented by Teasie's American Band for the occasion and a Welcome Committee composed of the Mayor, Commissioner Carter, and Commissioner Townsend will formally welcome the members of the fleet when it enters the bay. The centers of outdoor amusement will be thrown open while the "jacksies" are here, bathhouses, tennis courts, baseball and cricket grounds, maintaining "Open to Sailors" policy. A banquet for the officers of the squadron will take place, and a Red Cross dance is being planned by the Bay District Chapter.

VENICE WELCOMES FLEET.

VENICE, Aug. 6.—When that part of the Pacific Fleet which is to visit Venice Saturday arrives here, a committee headed by Mayor A. E. Cole, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce Robert Sheehan, and Thomas H. Ince will extend a formal welcome at the end of the Windward avenue pier. A banquet will be served to officers of the fleet, and a ball will be given in their honor in the Venice Dance pavilion. During one night of the stay here, the streets will be closed and a "jacksie" street ball will be staged.

Venice will be decorated from the pier to the end of Windward avenue and the beach from one end to the other is in preparation for the riot of color and fun that the city anticipates during the stay of the fighting craft.

NEW OIL FIELD.

SEELY, Aug. 6.—A transaction has been closed by W. F. Duncan and R. S. Genet of this city whereby they will lease approximately 1500 acres of oil land holdings of their own and associations on the highway west of Dixiland. The leases were made to D. Clarkson, oil operator.

Although definite plans have not been made known, it is reported that Mr. Clarkson has already made arrangements to sink a well on the land, and if it is found will plan a new townsite on the line of the proposed San Diego and Arizona Railroad.

MUST BOOST TAX RATE.

POMONA, Aug. 6.—High Cost of Living will cost the municipal government here $10,000. In other words the increase in wages, cost of materials and supplies is going to require $10,000 more to operate the city for this fiscal year than it did the last. This fact is discovered in the budgets from the various departments which are now being prepared and handed to Mayor Vandegrift preparatory to setting a new tax rate.

In view of the increase it is probable that the tax rate will be increased this year, according to city officials. The present rate is $1.65.

Does a pimply, unattractive skin that you off from admiration and pleasant associations? Each time you cleanse your face with Resinol Soap you give it a "beauty treatment" with nothing, healing Resinol medication. If aided, in severe cases, by a little Resinol Ointment, this usually leaves the complexion naturally clear and fresh.

All Resinol Soap and Creams made by Resinol Soap and Cream Co., 123 N. 4th St., Baltimore, Md.

Cuticura Soap

Best for Baby

Keep the Cuticura Soap and Cream in your home. It is the best for baby and the best for you.

By Briggs.

WELL HARVEY THIS IS MY BIRTHDAY—HOW OLD DO YOU THINK I AM?—I FEEL AS YOUNG AS A 16 YEAR OLD.

YOU CAN'T FIGURE ON LIVING MUCH LONGER—YOU'RE OVER THE AVERAGE NOW.

THEY SAY MORE PEOPLE DIE AT YOUR AGE THAN AT ANY OTHER AGE—BUT YOU MAY LIVE TWO OR THREE YEARS YET—YOUR COLOR IS BAD.

STATISTICS SHOW THAT 75% OF ALL DEATHS OCCUR DURING THE PERIOD YOU ARE NOW PASSING THROUGH.

BUT HARVEY—I NEVER FELT BETTER IN MY LIFE.

THAT PROVES IT—AS THE MORE SUSPICIOUS—

MOST DEATHS OCCUR JUST WHEN THE POOR VICTIMS ARE FEELING JUST AS YOU ARE—

OH SHUT UP.

THE GUMPS—NOW THE OLD BIRD WILL SUFFER.

SEE—THIS IS A NOT ONE—JUST CAN'T STAND THIS HOT WEATHER—I'VE GOT TO GET AWAY—I'VE GOT TO GET UP NORTH AND FISH AND REST.

I'D JUST LIKE TO BE OUT IN A BOAT NOW—WHIPPIN' THAT OLD HOOK AROUND—PICK UP A LILLY PAD A HUNDRED YARDS AWAY AND DROP YOUR OLD FISH ON IT AND SEE THOSE FISH STRIKE FOR IT—AND THEN REEL THEM IN!

THIS TAKES ALL THE LIFE OUT OF ME—I'M BAKED—I WONDER HOW NOT IT IS.

GEE—!! NO WONDER—ON MIN!

(Copyright, 1919, by H. C. Fisher. Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)

WE CAN TELL THIS CHANGELING FOR FIVE DUCKS AS EASY AS PIE—BRASS IS SCARCE!

BUT, MUTT—

JUST KEEP THAT HOLE PLUGGED UP WITH YOUR FINGER SO THE GAS WON'T ESCAPE. I'LL BE RIGHT BACK WITH A CORK!

I'LL SEE YOUR TWO BITS BET AND RAISE YOU ONE IRON MAN.

MUTT, THIS SEEMS TO BE YOUR LUCKY DAY, E. PASS!

M-M-M, THAT'S GOOD!

MUTT, I GOTTA HAND IT TO YOU. I'D DO USERS THOUGHT OF THAT!

Stanton W.R.C., No. 14, will hold both afternoon and evening meetings in Patriotic Hall, tomorrow. A class of ninety candidates for membership will be passed on.

On Place Mining.

Prof. B. Tatarian, head of the department of chemistry of the University of Arizona and a mining man of wide experience, will give a talk on "Place Mining" at the meeting of the Los Angeles Natural History Club of the Southwest Museum, tomorrow at 8 p.m., in room G, Normal Hill Center.

Banker To Speak.

Jackson A. Graves, vice-president of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, will speak on "Present Conditions" at a meeting of the 100 Per Cent Club at noon today at 127 South Spring street.

To Present Programme.

Students of Marion Ward will present the programme at a meeting of the Paternal Brotherhood Club, this evening, at the Blum street headquarters. A one-act comedy, "If Morning Glory Wins," will be presented, as well as a fancy dance by Miss Lillian Whitford and a reading by Kenneth Christ. Dancing and cards will follow the programme.

For W.C.T.U. Members.

A mothers' and white ribbon recruit picnic will be given by Los Angeles W.C.T.U. at Sycamore Grove today. Following the luncheon, Dr. Julia Rile will give an address and the white ribbon recruits will recite. Mrs. Annette Nesbitt, president of the Central W.C.T.U., will speak on "Moral Education" at a meeting at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Temperance Temple.

For the Brunettes.

Blondes and red-haired girls must take a back seat, Sunday afternoon, for brunettes will have the stage in a beauty contest at Hollenbeck Park. Similar contests in the Southland have supported which the British gave Mr. Gompers on every issue. But even then it must be remembered that this British delegation contained two Socialists who were often not in accord with their colleagues. The present drift of British union labor, if continued, would indicate that a few years it may be much nearer to continental union labor than American union labor.

AMERICANS ISOLATED.

In speeches Mr. Gompers and other American delegates said they felt they did not need foreign support, but the French and neutral, as well as German delegates, expressed the opinion to me that they will change their opinion in a few years, if not sooner.

MEETING TO PROTEST LOWERING LAKE TAHOE.

TAHOE, Aug. 6.—A mass meeting will be held at the Tahoe Tavern on August 9, at 3 p.m., to take steps to protect Lake Tahoe against the proposed action of the Federal government, which is aimed at cutting the rim of the lake and continually and permanently lowering the lake levels.

Representatives of the State of California, various State departments, chambers of commerce and associations interested in preserving the natural beauties of the State have been asked to attend.

Those who recently represented California at the hearings in Washington before Secretary Lane, will be present.

NO SOLIDARITY IN UNION LABOR.

European Workers Believe America a Menace.

Gompers's Attitude at Recent Congress Resented.

Socialist Principles are Basis for Split.

BY ARTHUR E. MANN.

ROTTERDAM, Aug. 6.—The leaders of the great mass of labor socialists of continental Europe believe that American union labor and American capital are moving toward a merger which will attempt to dominate the whole world of trade.

These leaders not only believe it—they fear it. This was dictated that clause in the resolution passed by the international trade union congress at Amsterdam which demands changes in the covenant of the League of Nations of such a nature that the league may deal with economic as well as political questions.

The continental leaders thought they saw their beliefs confirmed in what they called the American lack of international spirit and in the fierce denunciations by Samuel Gompers of the German and Dutch delegates to capitalism as the cause of the war.

Any way, it seems American union labor with its present ideas and ideals always will be in the minority in the international.

There are several reasons. First, with the exception of the British trade unions, European and continental labor is socialist—American labor today is not. Second, European labor, even trade unions, has a keen sense of a united political partnership—American labor has not, representing as it does the several American parties. European labor feels less regard for employing only constitutional methods in seeking labor reforms than American labor. The result of these differences is that European labor at least displays, if it does not really feel, more of what is called the spirit of international solidarity than American labor.

DISAGREEMENT ON SOCIALISM.

A good many of the disagreements between American and European delegates arose over the question of socialist principles. The issue came up at the first meeting of the congress when the Americans opposed Chairman Outegge's statement, applying the socialist theory of the cause of the war to the conflict just over, and it ran through every meeting, including the last, which perhaps was the best illustration when the Yankers declared the American delegation at the international conference of socialist labor parties at Lucerne, within the last week.

The American attitude toward the testimony in the congress to approve political partnership on the part of union labor was illustrated when the Yankers declared the American delegation at the international conference of socialist labor parties at Lucerne, within the last week.

his chief deputy to step out of the room for a minute, and the "grand jury" were mentioned. McGwire was directly secured from Mrs. Maud Kafitz, who said McGwire had threatened her with death, presumably because she knew something was brewing.

The automobile in which McGwire carried the bombs and the cans of oil to the vicinity of the Lawler house was found and the prints of the cans on a mat in the back of the car were plainly visible.

FEARED FOR LIFE.

That she was a helpless and unwitting witness to the man's preparation for the crime was the statement of Mrs. Kafitz to Chief Home, the woman told the authorities that McGwire went to Fullerton, July 18, and there bought the powder and fuses, signing the name of A. R. Smith. The next day the nipples and caps were bought from a man named Gray. Then the bombs were constructed and McGwire announced he was going out to try out one of the three and see how it worked.

According to the woman's story, the man forced her to go in an automobile with him to a field near Beverly Hills, where the experimental explosion took place. The detonation attracted the attention of the neighbors and the police were called to investigate. The detectives later found fragments of the bomb which are said to correspond exactly with those found near the Lawler home.

Saturday night, Mrs. Kafitz said, McGwire called at her house and made her go out with him. He had a rifle in the back part of an automobile and drove out into the country for the purpose of killing her, she said, according to her story. Then he changed his mind. "He told me he feared he would not make a clean job of it," she said, "and finally decided to bring me back to the city." Before leaving the place where the woman said McGwire intended to kill her, she fired the rifle at a target, for the purpose of seeing how correct his aim was. Then he brought her back to the city and that night he was at her house at midnight, two and a half hours before the explosion.

The authorities recovered the automobile used by McGwire, Mr. Woolwine announced. It was rented from the Stillwell Garage. Ever since the explosion, Mrs. Kafitz told the police, McGwire has been trying to get in touch with her, but she feared he was going to kill her and kept out of sight.

THE KAFITZ CASE.

McGwire sprang into prominence when the sensational war over the will of William Kafitz was started last December. Soon after the death of Mr. Kafitz, who left a $75,000 estate, he was appointed special administrator, representing Mrs. Maud Kafitz, the widow. His removal was sought by Willy Kafitz, a nephew of William Kafitz, and his sister, Mrs. Lizzie Misco. They alleged that McGwire secured appointment fraudulently because Mrs. Kafitz had sworn that she searched for a will and failed to find one, which statement, they said, was untrue as there was a will and she knew of it but had "suppressed the information."

Under the will Willy Kafitz and Mrs. Misco became the principal heirs and they were named executors. Oscar Lawler acted as counsel for them and he denounced the widow's conduct and motives. The attorney for Mrs. Kafitz and for Mr. McGwire in securing the letters of administration was Joseph Scott, who was also an attorney for the McNamaras in that celebrated dynamiting case.

Mrs. Kafitz, when on the witness stand, told of a quarrel with her husband, during which she shot at him. The widow lost the fight for the estate, the jury of ten women and two men returning a verdict that Kafitz was of sound mind when he executed the will, January 29, 1918. Following the verdict Judge Myers ruled that McGwire automatically ceased his functions as special administrator.

The trial was made additionally notable by the scathing address delivered by Mr. Lawler as counsel for the heirs. He caustically reviewed the evidence of her shooting her elderly husband, of her alleged amours with other men and of her efforts to inherit Mr. Kafitz's money.

COURT BATTLE.

When the will was produced Mrs. Kafitz brought suit to prevent its probate. Mr. Lawler presented affidavits bringing out unusual allegations of brooding, jealousy, and also alleged that McGwire was "violently, energetically and vigorously partisan" and otherwise incompetent to act as administrator. It was also alleged that McGwire sought to blackmail Dr. J. C. Solomon, physician for Kafitz, and tried to induce him not to testify.

The heirs sought to show that Kafitz cut off Mrs. Kafitz from any share in the estate because she went out with other men. She set up the plea that his mind was unbalanced by pre-German sentiments.

Mrs. Helen McGwire, former maid in the Gramercy place home of Mr. Kafitz, was the star witness at the trial. She told of three men, who, she said, paid attention to Mrs. Kafitz and said one of them was Joseph Jenson, a jeweler, and another George Campbell. She told of an alleged attempt on the part of Mr. Jenson to get her to go away.

A general conference of all police detectives who are investigating the Lawler bomb outrage and Dist. Atty. Woolwine, Chief of Police Home and investigators from the District Attorney's office was held yesterday at Chief Home's office at Central Police Station. All evidence in the hands of the police was gone over and plans for future action made. New evidence which was secured yesterday was placed by Chief Home before Mr. Woolwine, but both the police and members of the District Attorney's staff refused to make public the nature of the new facts. This meeting followed a conference of Mr. Woolwine and Chief Home at the latter's house, that did not terminate till 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

Chief Home yesterday started Florentine Florentine, the official police photographer, on a mysterious trip which kept him away from Central Police Station. When Mr. Florentine returned, he stated he had taken more than 300 pictures, both in this city and at several beach towns. He also admitted reproducing a hotel register but refused to state where he took the picture. Chief Home refused to make a statement in regard to the pictures but declared they were necessary in the case the police are preparing.

Yesterday all the police detectives operating on the bomb case agreed that without a doubt the explosion was the work of some person who wished to revenge himself on Mr. Lawler or the outcome of a jealousy as is supposed to have been the motive for the attack on Mr. Jenson. It is stated that Mr. Nicholson came home at an inopportune time.

NAZIMOVA BUYS A HOME HERE.

Famous Actress Pays Sixty Thousand for Hollywood House and Grounds.

Mme. Alla Nazimova, the actress, has just purchased the home of W. H. Hay, Los Angeles real estate broker, at 8800 Sunset boulevard, according to the latter's announcement yesterday. The price is understood to have been $60,000. This property, including highly improved grounds of two and one-half acres and a large Spanish-style residence, is one of the most attractive in that part of Hollywood.

The house was built by Mr. Hay, who occupies it for a time as his home. He brought rare woods from the Philippine Islands to finish the interior. Mme. Nazimova, leased the property a year ago, and on deciding to make Los Angeles her permanent home, made an offer for the place.

JEWELER'S LEG IS BROKEN BY TUMBLE.

DURING STRUGGLE IN APARTMENT-HOUSE FALLS DOWN FLIGHT OF STAIRS.

In answer to an emergency call from the fashionable Alvarado apartments, at 837 South Alvarado street late last night, which stated that a burglar had been caught and had sustained a broken leg in an attempt to escape, Detective Sergeant Smith and Jarvis discovered that instead of a burglar the victim was Joseph Jenson of 991 South Arapahoe street, a local jeweler. It was also discovered that Mr. Jenson and a man giving the name of Nicholson, who claimed to be the proprietor of a Long Beach cafe, had engaged in an altercation during which both fell down two flights of stairs. Neither of the men would make any statement to the police.

Dr. Stadfield set the leg and later sent Mr. Jenson home. Jealousy is supposed to have been the motive for the attack on Mr. Jenson. It is stated that Mr. Nicholson came home at an inopportune time.

MR. LAWLER HOLDS HIS OWN.

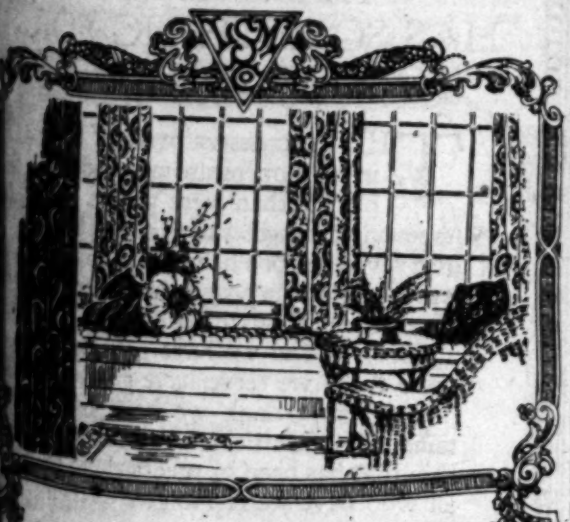

Oscar Lawler's condition remained practically unchanged yesterday, according to physicians attending the noted attorney at St. Vincent's Hospital. Mrs. Lawler, who was less seriously injured at the time her husband was terribly burned by flames following the dynamiting of their home last Sunday, was reported as somewhat better. The crisis for Mr. Lawler will be reached within a few days, at most.

The People and Their Troubles

DISCUSS HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Times Readers Present Many Remedies for Prevailing Big-Prices on Foodstuffs and Other Necessities of Life.

Organize the Buyers.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] There is much in the public discussion of the high cost of living that is unavailing. The argument is generally founded upon a method of approach which shows a lack of analysis, and a failure to take into account the power of relief in the hands of the part of the public which is actually suffering.

The whole country is affected by the distress that comes from the ability of the merchant and marketing classes to execute price increases at will, and maintain higher averages of profit than have heretofore been known in our history. There were evidences of this movement prior to the war, but that event permitted the operation of plans for organized profiteering not previously considered safe or even feasible under our laws, and the practices thus started are yet in full swing without restraint. A complete change in the manner of distributing and marketing the necessities that we must have for our welfare has been formulated and introduced with great ability and its application is a vigorous challenge to the intelligence and patience of our household management.

It is entirely fair, and quite accurate, to now separate our people into two classes: First those who are directly benefited by the movement to enforce the highest possible returns upon all products and wearing apparel, which includes our entire mercantile population. The other class is composed of those who are not so benefited, but who, in addition, must support and contribute to the maintenance of a system which is set up and operated by the first class. The cleavage is clear, and the separation will become more distinct in the very near future.

Those in the first named class have a high purchasing power because of their greater privilege to spend their growing incomes with but little reserve, while the widespread establishment of profiteering practices in almost all lines of business makes this class large in numbers in any community, so that the demand created by them does, in itself, tend to the elevation of prices. That demand, logically, reaches the point of extravagance, particularly in the purchase of food, but it is not the plain that this class could not reap the rewards of its own good fortune if it were not for the power which they have, unrestrained and uncontested, to exact tribute from the other class which has no alternative but to purchase in the same market and under conditions and circumstances over which they have no control.

There is a remedy which may be applied at any time, and in the interest of all it should be executed. It lies in the organization of the second class above referred to by including within the consolidation thus effected none excepting those who are clearly a constituent part of that class. Efforts have been made in the past, but under different conditions, to bring about such a cohesive body of our people, and aside from a spasmodic agitation, loudly proclaimed in the public press and soon dissipating, there were no results. Some of the reasons for this failure were plain. The organizations had their inception very large, if not wholly, in clubs of well-intentioned and able officers who, when sought to become active in a supposed philanthropic cause, those who led—and this is said in no offensive sense—were identified, not by choice, but by circumstances, with the mercantile class, either directly or by close association, so that their efforts were not expected to do. Such an organization as is advocated here would, therefore, be practically one of volunteers, selecting its leadership with care, financing itself by assessments, which would be trivial in comparison with the results obtained, and bringing about by concerted action uniform restrictions in the buying of designated products at designated times, making it impossible, on the part of merchants and marketers, to complete sales of their products at greater prices than this highly organized class of our people were willing to pay.

As the case now stands there is danger. It is especially dangerous to make marketing by our housewives an odious experience to be faced each day and talked of in the home with disgust and growing indignation. No political system which we can effect can stand that long. The suffrage is now in the hands of those who are experiencing personal effort, negligence and a surprising lack of interest from the business establishments of these who, a short while ago, were respected tradesmen in our communities. That shifting class of hybrid nationalities, indifferently, wantonly and ignorantly greedy, infest the market place where the largest part of the people buy their food. The proprietor, who employs this class, is becoming a hardheaded man, because it is entirely unnecessary for him to be otherwise. Excesses of dishonesty and mendacity must, of course, multiply under such conditions, but the take-it-or-leave-it spirit cannot survive an organized attack, nor will it endure when there is a concentrated effort and united front made, under capable leadership, to meet organized greed with organized obstruction.

Will this method be undertaken? AN ADVOCATE.

Prosecute Speculators.

OCEANSIDE, Aug. 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Have we no remedy for the high cost of living? Will all these investigations in Congress amount to anything? What do the producers care. They know Congress will dawdle along for months arguing whether the fault is with the wholesaler or the retailer and the cost of necessities will continue to soar while they pocket their unholy gains.

There is one way out and that is for Congress to make it a penal offense to speculate in the necessities of life.

W. W. SAMPOON.

GLENNDALE, Aug. 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I agree heartily with Mr. George Patton in what he says about the high cost of fruits and vegetables. We have not bought a single box of berries this summer from the Japs. It has been a cross for us to bear but we made up our minds not to pay their price.

SANTA ANA, Aug. 3.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Again the railroad men demand a substantial increase in wages. Again will follow a demand for increased fares and freight rates. Again merchants will be compelled to raise prices, and so the vicious circle continues.

Are the railroad men, now the most overpaid and least appreciative of the people, under such conditions by the government as entitled to relief from the H. C. of L?

Let Congress begin at the other end. Reduce costs to all the people and play no favorites.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 4.—[To the Editor of The Times:] That not all the blame for the high cost of living should be handed to the big five or the wholesalers is quite apparent to the fiscal housewife, who par for patronizes the small market man and the corner grocery.

My local meat market, no further out than Western and Vernon avenues, and surrounding districts, are allowed to extort 16 cents a pound for very common stein steaks when the wholesale price has been reported as selling for $10 and $12 will be selling for $10.

The president of the United States Chamber of Commerce is reported as saying "the cost of living is going to remain high," thereby intimating that it may go higher.

The last monthly report of exportations says the shipments exceed those of any month in the history of the country, and the foreign demand is used as the excuse for prevailing high prices—all the traffic will bear.

In the judgment of the writer, there is one quick and sure way of reducing the high cost of existence, and that is to stop all exportations of food and all articles that in any way go to make up the home or the individual life of the American citizen. The cost of living is not a problem of the people are fully supplied with the necessities and comforts of life at reasonable prices.

Some time ago Mr. Shibley was made a defendant in a breach of promise suit brought by Mrs. Mary Shibley. She asked $25,000 damages for humiliation and suffering because of Mr. Shibley's alleged failure to keep his promise to marry her. At the trial of the case she was awarded $5000 damages.

PUTS IT UP TO GOVERNMENT.

"Consumer" Says Congress Can Find Way to Save Profits and Lower Prices.

Government Control.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 5.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The Armour, Swift, Wilson combine would have the country believe they are public benefactors, and tolling in the interests of those whom they serve. Following the statement of the packers concerning a minute profit of less than 2 per cent the people of the United States want to know about the enormous profit of the packers in oleomargarine, poultry, butter, eggs, cheese, cereals, vegetables and fruits, fresh and canned, leather, transportation, distribution, storage, clandestine partnership in hundreds of concerns handling hundreds of varieties of food products, absolutely dominated by the big five.

I suggest that Congress take from the big five, by purchase, at fair prices, every refrigerator car of the more than 90 per cent of such cars in the United States which they own, and then operate them by a commission of railroad men, in connection with a commission appointed by the United States, on a mileage basis, allowing the owners of such cars the same mileage rate as the railroad companies now allow each other. Allow no corporation, partnership, nor individuals in the United States to engage in any line of manufacture or merchandising other than the business in which they engaged at their beginning, or grow work as has legitimately grown out of same, and such as legitimately belongs to the same. Require all manufacturers, jobbers, wholesalers and distributors to publish daily their prices to the retail trade, or those to whom they sell, and allow them a fair profit on their sales, which rate of profit may be agreed upon by representatives of the United States, and then govern their dealings on about the same basis as suggested above, concerning retailers. If the big five are selling all their meat products and accessories at a profit of 15 per cent, less than the big price paid by those who handle, and for the first 5 per cent, or less, added by the retailers to the allowed gross profit of 15 per cent, there shall be paid to the United States government a tax of 50 per cent on such added percentage, and for the second added 5 per cent, or less, there shall be a government tax of 100 per cent.

It occurs to the writer that a plan can be worked out somewhat in the line of the foregoing that will put a stop to the practices of plunderers in food and other commodities. There have been many important cases above the publishing of the law in various cases, and there can be no doubt but that an enactment of this kind will put a stop to the practices of plunderers in food and other commodities.

SEALS WIN IN BIG FAT INNING.

Slap Long-Legged Dell for Quartette of Runs.

Corhan There with a Mighty Swat for Homer.

Bromley Pitches a Good Game for Bay City.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—One big fat inning with the bat gave the Seals a 5-2 victory over the Vernon Tigers today. In the third round the Seals hit with great gusto, and they slapped the baseball so hard that the seams cracked. Also little Hughie High nearly cracked his skull backing up against the left-field bleacher front trying to snare one of the seals.

The locals did some real hitting in the third inning. Crandall's double and Corhan's lucky single gave them a run in the second inning, but in the third Schick opened with a regular hit and stole second. He went to third on Fit's error, and he walked home on Zamloch's double. Koerner followed with another terrific drive for two bases, scoring "Zam," and after Crandall had struck out, Roy Corhan electrified the crowd with a home run.

GLIMPS ROY.

Bob Conner, scout for the New York Yankees, was there and saw it all. He knows that Corhan is a big leaguer when it comes to fielding, and the way Roy was hitting today he made a lot of big-time short-stops look like infants with the war club. Bob will take another look at Roy to make sure that he is looking at the right man, and then he will probably begin dickering to get Roy up to the big show for the third time in his career.

Jack Bromley pitched for the Seals like he used to pitch against them. He allowed but three hits until the ninth inning, when they bunched three homers for their second run, and at no time did he look distressed. At different times both Tom Seaton and Jim Scott were warming up, but they probably needed a little exercise. Certainly Bromley had no distress signals flying for he faced Bobby Meusel and Babe Borton without the flicker of an eyelash when he had men on bases.

Long-legged Dell was driven to the showers in that third inning. He was in the game just long enough to be charged with the defeat. The score:

BY CHAPIN HALE.

The large investments which have been made by local capital in bonds since the financial regeneration of the country commenced shortly after the signing of the armistice have resulted in a wider and more intelligent interest in this form of security than existed before.

From an occasional bondholder, who, by the very reason of the fact that he was a bondholder, fell at once into an arbitrary plutocratic classification, the distributor has grown until almost as many people own bonds or are in process of acquiring them as own or are buying automobiles on the installment plan. Twenty-five or more well established and thoroughly established bond-dealing houses are in the local field, and the business is growing rapidly. The question of price, of course, one which interests the purchaser, is not the only factor which enters into the consideration of the investment.

In public utility and corporate bonds a fairly substantial level has been reached, and an average return established around 6 per cent. The demand has so far kept even with or has exceeded the supply, and little or no difficulty has been experienced in marketing any good bond, even the foreign issues which have been offered. Incidentally there will be more of these issues, and there is considerable speculation as to just how they will be received. So long as there is almost unlimited money seeking outlets, they will sell readily enough, but when the time comes, as it will come, that the present inflation is reduced and money tightens up somewhat, it seems reasonable to assume that it will gravitate naturally to the side of domestic promotions.

One phase of the bond market is weaker. The municipal market, for a time there was perfect flood of municipal offerings, and they found ready sale at a high price. A certain percentage of investors prefer the added surety of municipal bonds, but there is a limit to this class of buyers and that limit has apparently been reached, for the tendency of municipalities at the present time is downward. They are not attractive enough in competition with the other issues and the limit of absorption for high priced, low yield issues has about been reached, at least in Los Angeles and vicinity. Locally local houses which specialize in bonds of this character have been reducing their stock in hand, and preparing for a period of readjustment.

Municipals which have been sold on a yield basis of 4 1/2 per cent. have already advanced to 4.50, and the sale is not brisk at that figure. A further increase to 5 per cent. seems to be expected soon, and even that may not crack the market very wide with other attractive offerings being made at from 6 to 7 per cent. Buyers are proceeding with caution and the issues which will be offered this month are not likely to attract either the competitive bidding or the high price and premium which have prevailed earlier in the year. The next three months will probably bring some radical changes in the municipal bond situation.
